Dear Alexander Grigorievich,

For many years I have considered you as my spiritual teacher and tutor. I have read your first book "What to do when it's not as you want it to be" back in 1999.

At that time I had serious problems with my family life (I had just divorced my first wife and our small child remained with her). Nothing was definite. Endless drinking bouts have started followed by financial problems. To summarize, it was a nightmare... Then I soaked up your priceless information and life has started to change swiftly but fundamentally.

So now I have a loving wife and a 4 year-old son. We live in a three-room apartment in the best district of the city. I have got a new car, a garage, a decent job. We were traveling abroad on holidays, etc.

I am very grateful to you for the priceless information you gave me that has helped me in everything. Everything has changed since then. And you have "grown" as well – thanks to Almighty Forces!

Thanks for all the publications that followed.
It was so pleasant to watch you on TV.

*Best regards,
Alexander, Ukraine*
