Dear Alexander,

I have been looking for an opportunity to thank you for a long time. Your books have helped me to change myself and my life completely. My life can be divided into two totally different ones as "life before" and "life after. "Before" I had a job that I hated and made 1,000 rubles per month feeling bad because of my druggy boyfriend's cheating. "After" I have moved to Moscow and published over 10 of my own books, and my "buddy" has turned into a devoted and loving man without any bad habits. Now the main dream of my life is coming true. It used to take about a year for a large-scale or a money-consuming dream to come true. And now all the processes have speeded up considerably. Negative influences and emotions are disappearing away much faster and the goals are being achieved more easily.

Thank you and good luck!

Vika
